Under 15 Employees Award Winner

Tignor's Hometown Hardware staff are presented the 2019 Small Business of the Year Award (under 15 employees).

Tignor's Hometown Hardware

In business since 2003

Lorrie and Matt Tignor, co-owners of Tignor's Hardware have owned the business since 2003. The store represents the continuity of the original downtown Jack's Hardware, which was located at the former Freedlander property. The Tignor family is proud of the reputation built throughout the community by the store and plumbing business since taking ownership from the late Joe Retzler, who operated the store on North Walnut Street. Recognized as a family business, co-owner Lorrie Tignor feels blessed to continue the dream her late husband, Michael, had in the early 2000's of owning their own store. As their team looks to the future, the award is confirmation that their friendly customer service and commitment to the Wooster Community is recognized and appreciated.

15 or More Employees Award Winner

The management staff of M.W. Robinson Co. accept the 2019 Small Business of the Year Award (15 or more employees).

M.W. Robinson Co.

In business since 1976

Mark Robinson opened a one-man plumbing business nearly 44 years ago in the New Pittsburg area, just west of Wooster. Fast forward to 2019, Mark has successfully expanded M.W. Robinson Co. into one of the largest and longest standing HVAC and plumbing contractors in the region. Mark is humbled by the award and believes that it's a true testament to the quality techs that represent the company every day. Receiving this award also recognizes the investments in both technology and physical facilities that the organization has made recently. As the day to day operations shift to the next generation, Mark is pleased with the business he has built and the reputation the company carries both in the community and from its customers.

While visiting Wooster one day, Wendy and Leo thought the city would be the perfect location for a second bakery and that idea developed into the downtown space they occupy today. Blue Rooster's first location is in Oberlin.

They offer desserts, breakfast treats, savory goodies and breads. Gluten free and vegan items are also available. S'mores brownies, Banana Split Cake and Orange Zest Cranberry Scones are just a few things that can be found when visiting Blue Rooster Bakehouse. If you are looking to serve meeting or luncheon guests, Blue Rooster is happy to help. They just ask for a few days notice to ensure your desired items are available.

Stop in at 135 W. Liberty Street in Wooster Tuesday-Saturday 8 a.m. – 6 p.m. to grab some treats!

Joshua Montgomery talks to the group about having a cybersecurity program and ways to protect client data.

Brian Boyer explains the importance of using caution in the digital world just as you would in the real world.

The Chamber hosted an Educational Series focused on the importance of protecting customer data. Joshua Montgomery of Broehl Law Office, LLC and Brian Boyer of Web Pyro shared insight as to how businesses (small and large) can protect their data from both external and internal threats. Detailed examples of practices that businesses can implement to limit data breaches and protect valuable information were provided to attendees.

Joshua covered the legal aspects of why it's important to protect customer data. He shared that 50 percent of small business data breaches come from cyber attacks. Businesses should have physical and technical safeguards in place including a cyber-security program. Joshua covered the main points of Ohio's Data Protection Act and how it aims to incentivize companies to have strong security practices in place.

Brian talked about ways to keep your data secure. He stressed the importance of not believing everything you see and ways to avoid falling for scams. Determining what data should be stored and for how long are questions companies should be asking. Strong passwords will go a long way to help protect information.

Thank you to Broehl Law Office and Web Pyro for participating in the series and to Village Catering Company for providing lunch!

Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives names Wooster a top in the Nation!

The Wooster Area Chamber was honored by the National Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives as a top Chamber in the nation for 2019! The award was presented to Chamber leadership at the organization's annual meeting held in Long Beach, California, where more than 1,100 Chamber Executives throughout the nation convened.

"The award confirms that the organization is on the right track in terms of program implementation and overall leadership," said Justin Starlin, President of the Wooster Chamber.

The process of being named a top Chamber is challenging to say the least. From an initial in depth application and review process by ACCE, to in person interviews and analyzation, the Wooster Chamber met all the challenges with positive marks, which led to Wooster being named a top Chamber.

Samira Zimmerly, Director of Events and Programs, credited a supportive community and membership for the distinguished recognition. "We are blessed with support from our community that other Chambers would die for, and the possibility to be in the tier that this Award represents is a testament to that."

Safety Council

Safety Council Recap: Dangers of heat exhaustion, heat stroke and ways to stay safe when it gets hot outside

The Wooster Area Safety Council concluded the 2018 Safety Council year Wednesday, June 26, 2019 with a meeting at First Presbyterian Church in Wooster.

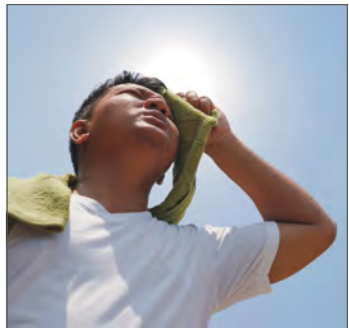

Mike Berry spoke about the dangers of heat exhaustion and heat stroke and ways to stay safe when the summer temperatures rise. He described the symptoms of heat stroke such as, dizziness, muscle weakness or cramps. If you notice someone displaying these symptoms the best things to do are: find a cool place - an air conditioned room is best and drink cold water. He shared a video to demonstrate how dangerous it is to leave children and pets inside hot cars. Staying hydrated is one of the best ways to avoid heat stroke and he explained this is especially important for athletes who are practicing outside in the summer heat.

Mike is a 19 year veteran of the Wooster Division of Fire. Along with his duties as a Firefighter and Fire Inspector, Mike is a State of Ohio certified Paramedic. He is also an Internationally Certified Fire Investigator and American Heart Association CPR Instructor.

The Chamber would like to thank Mike Berry for taking the time to present to the Safety Council. We would also like to thank Old Carolina Barbecue for catering our lunch.

Upcoming August Safety Council: "Stop the Bleed" with IOF

Ethan Frontz
Firearm Instructor,
Instruments of Freedom

Jeff Wilson and Ethan Frontz, of Instruments of Freedom, will be speaking on "Stop the Bleed" at the next Safety Council meeting on August 28.

When dealing with an arterial bleed, every second counts. 30,000 lives each year could be saved if more people knew how to control massive hemorrhaging. Accidents can happen at any time. Car wrecks, work injuries, camping, hunting, active shooter situations are all reasons one could need medical attention. Carrying and knowing the proper application of a tourniquet can make all the difference for keeping an injured person alive.

Remember, when seconds count, emergency services are only minutes away...

Jeff Wilson started his career in 1992 in the small village of Shreve, Ohio. After 10 years he went on to multiple instructor schools throughout the US with his favorite being at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center where he obtained his Federal Instructor Certification. Always being the quiet professional and a student of "the Game" he continues to put in over 150 hours a year of his own training to become as proficient as possible as an instructor while teaching around the country and donating his time to law enforcement agencies in multiple disciplines of weapon systems, surveillance/counter surveillance, Tactical Medicine, NVGs and FLIR, Active Shooter and more. He has multiple instructor certifications and continues to build on his CV every year.

Ethan Frontz has been a Wooster resident his whole life. Ethan learned to love his community by being a water well driller for his family's local business. Supplying Ohio families with clean drinking water was something he was proud to contribute. Becoming a Concealed Handgun License instructor in 2016, Ethan turned his focus as a partner of Instruments Of Freedom, to be an asset to the public and have a positive impact on the community by providing quality training to ensure self preservation when tragedy strikes.

The Safety Council meets from 11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church 621 College Ave. Wooster, OH 44691.
