Welcome McClintock as 2023 Chair and new board members

Michael McClintock
President,
McClintock Electric
2023 Chair

Michael McClintock, President, McClintock Electric, has been named the 2023 Wooster Chamber Board of Directors Chair.

Mike has been involved with McClintock Electric full-time since 1977 and assumed the position of president in 1993. He is also a second-generation owner of the business. His resume includes an Associate of Applied Science degree from the University of Akron in Electronic Technology and 15 years in the field as a journeyman electrician. Additionally,

Mike holds State licenses as a certified Electrical Contractor and Certified Fire Alarm installation Contractor.

Under Mike's leadership, McClintock Electric continues providing the quality service and craftsmanship that has kept it a growing, viable company for over half a century. They help their clients navigate the increasingly complex decisions that need made when they decide to make improvements or changes to the myriad types of electrical, communication, networking, security, fire alarm, card access and other systems they support.

Mike is an active member of the community through his company and is involved with the Wooster Noon Lions Club. He sits on the board of United Way of Wayne and Holmes Counties, as well as the board of Wayne Center for the Arts. The Chamber appreciates his experience and looks forward to his leadership in 2023.

Chad Kauffman
Founder & CEO,
Kitty Poo Club

Kimberly Hall
Partner, Critchfield,
Critchfield & Johnston

Rodd Welker
President,
Eagle Advisor Group

The Chamber is excited to announce the addition of three new board members this year! Chad Kauffman, Founder & CEO of Kitty Poo Club, Kimberly Hall, Partner at Critchfield, Critchfield & Johnston, and Rodd Welker, President of Eagle Advisor Group will serve through 2028.

Chad Kauffman is a born entrepreneur. He developed Kitty Poo Club as a solution for an everyday problem that cat-owners experience: the litter box. He is an experienced President with a demonstrated history of working in the plastics industry and is a strong business development professional with a BSBA focused in Marketing and International Business from Appalachian State University.

Kimberly Hall is the chair of Critchfield's Employment Law Practice Group and is a member of the Litigation Practice Group. She focuses her practice on counseling employers in employment law matters and regularly assists employers in complying with the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act. Kim is also experienced in defending employers in collective action/class action wage and hour lawsuits.

Rodd Welker has vast experience in leading and empowering others, maximizing their potential and performance. He facilitates leadership development for companies and organizations nationwide, provides executive coaching for top execs as well as emerging leaders, and conducts adventure-based teambuilding. Rodd has more than 35 years of managerial and executive leadership experience in business, higher education and non-profit organizations.

These three individuals bring great experience and perspectives to the Board of Directors, and the Chamber looks forward to their involvement in the coming years.

Certified Angus Beef hosts December BAH in new print shop

In December, Certified Angus Beef hosted a Business After Hours at their new warehouse and print shop! Chamber members gathered together to tour the new facility and enjoyed festive drinks, delicious beef, and appetizers. Attendees were also treated to a dessert station provided by Miss Amy's Bakery.

The warehouse, located at 147 Riffel Road, houses the Brand Store products, marketing materials, and more. You can shop the Certified Angus Beef Brand Store at shop.certifiedangusbeef.com.

We greatly appreciate the team at Certified Angus Beef for hosting such a wonderful event and opening their doors to our members. It was an evening full of camaraderie and tasty treats!

❖ Home & Garden Show

Save the Date! For the 32nd Annual Wayne County Home & Garden Show

It may be cold now, but warmer days are ahead! The 32nd Annual Wayne County Home & Garden Show returns to the Wayne County Fairgrounds on Saturday, April 29, and Sunday, April 30.

With children's activities, a plant sale and traditional fair food concessions in addition to exhibits, the event offers something for everyone. Exhibitors have found it the perfect place to feature their products and services to the public, and participation in the show includes booth space, backdrops and side curtains, electric and water, plus advertising to households all across the area.

The event is the longest-running spring show in the area with an amazing variety of innovative home products and services. Learn more and register to be a vendor at www.woosterchamber.com/wayne-county-home-garden-show.

Join us at our next Business After Hours celebrating RBB Systems

Join us for a special Business After Hours celebrating the 50th anniversary of RBB Systems! On February 9 from 4:30 to 6:30, Chamber members are invited to mingle and celebrate at RBB, located at 1909 Old Mansfield Rd. in Wooster. The evening will include drinks, appetizers, and door prizes, alongside manufacturing tours.

RBB was established in 1973 as an industrial engineering services firm. For many years, their engineers designed, assembled, and installed control systems for OEMs and other manufacturing environments. They later expanded to also become a printed circuit board manufacturer. Through their many years of service, RBB has developed a unique approach to electronic assembly manufacturing, which has been proven to lower client costs and ensure they provide superior service.

We are excited to celebrate with this longstanding community business! Please register at woosterchamber.com/business-after-hours if you plan to attend.

Wooster sparkles and shines for Let It Glow

The third annual Let It Glow competition spread holiday cheer across the area again this year. With 30 decked-out homes, and a special musical display at the Chamber building, each stop was unique and a worthy contestant.

Friends and families toured the route spanning the 44691 area to enjoy the houses adorned in lights, wreaths, lawn ornaments, and more! Votes for the People's Choice award were collected through January 1 and will be announced on the Chamber's social media and included in the February edition of the newsletter. Stay tuned!

Thank you to everyone who participated this year and spread joy throughout our community!

❖ Safety Council

Join us for Safety Council in January to hear from Sedgwick on Navigating Ohio's Workers' Compensation System

Becca Rohner
Account Executive,
Sedgwick

Bob Nicoll
Program Manager,
Sedgwick

Wooster Area Safety Council is going to start off 2023 with the 10 most important things to know about successfully navigating Ohio's Workers' Compensation system. On Wednesday, January 25, Becca Rohner and Bob Nicoll will discuss what they see as the important things that employers and employees need to know and practice in order to successfully manage the workers' comp programs at their workplaces. They will approach the subject from the perspective of the Managed Care Organizations' and Third Party Administrators' day to day interactions with employers and employees. They will share best practices related to both claim and cost management.

Bob is a Program Manager and just celebrated his 25th year with Sedgwick. During his time with Sedgwick, he has served in various positions from sales to customer service. His responsibilities now include assisting Sedgwick's group rating chamber sponsors and their members with the administration of Sedgwick's group rating and claim management programs. Prior to joining Sedgwick, Bob worked in the commercial property and casualty field for 15 years.

Becca has a BA in Rehabilitation Services from Wright State University and has over 20 years of Workers Comp experience. She has held several positions within Sedgwick MCO including claims management, training new colleagues and management. She currently holds the role of Account Executive and serves clients across the state of Ohio, providing seamless solutions to help injured employees recover, and helping clients control expenses and reduce lost workdays.

The Leadership Wooster Class explored Arts, Religion & Inclusion in December

Throughout the year, Leadership Wooster explores different facets in the community and learn how those aspects tie into leadership. This past month, the class learned about the Arts in Wooster, the different religions in the area, and how to be more inclusive.

To start the day off, the class participated in an activity that helped them embrace their differences. Sherry Leggett and Laura Newberry -Yokley from Certified Angus Beef presented on a Respectful Workplace. They then traveled to the Ohio Light Opera, where Laura Neill gave a tour of the facilities and shared how everything comes together for the shows each summer.

Next, they traveled to the Church of the Nazarene for a tour, lunch provided by Basil, and religion round tables. They closed out the tours by traveling to Wayne Center for the Arts and learned about all of the programming they provide.

To finish the day, Rodd Welker taught CQ Your Bias, which brings awareness to the inherent biases we all have and may unknowingly project. It was a day full of learning and growth opportunities and helped bring light to all of the wonderful diversity and art opportunities in our area.
