Chamber to name 2019 Small Business of the Year!

Local small businesses are one of the most integral components in making up the unique Wooster culture that we all love. From the local coffee shop that brews that special blend, to a one of a kind boutique, local small businesses make our community stand out among the rest and play an important role in retaining citizens, while attracting visitors alike. The Chamber, in partnership with the law firm of Critchfield, Critchfield & Johnston and the accounting firm of Rea & Associates are sponsoring the 2019 Small Business of the Year award selection, which will be made in the month of June.

The Chamber's Board of Directors will evaluate the information submitted by the award finalists in naming one winner per category for the 2019 Small Business of the Year Award.

Winners will be selected for the following:

- 15 employees or less
- More than 15 employees

Selection criteria is based on the following considerations:

- Financial Strength and Position
- Community Involvement
- Customer Service and Satisfaction
- Longevity – years in operation

A notable award brought to you by the Wooster Chamber of Commerce &

2018 Small Business Award Winners include Canaan Meats & Friendly Wholesale Co.

Canaan Meats is presented the 2018 Small Business of the Year (15 employees or less)

Friendly Wholesale Co. is presented the 2018 Small Business of the Year (More than 15 employees)

The Small Business of the Year award allows the Chamber to recognize successful businesses that may not always receive the notoriety and the publicity that they so deserve. With small businesses playing an active role in the overall success of our economy and community, the Chamber is honored to present this award annually.

Help Support the, Field of Dreams

The annual Field of Dreams game is more than just a game, it's a memorable experience that many look forward to each and every year. The event, which pairs local business partners with Special Olympians, is a great showing of sportsmanship, team spirit, and true enthusiasm and excitement. The Wooster Chamber organizes the big game festivities by seeking Chamber member support in this memorable annual event either through direct participation or through financial support. This year's game, which will include a new format of wiffle ball and kickball will be held on Thursday, July 11th at the Wooster high school varsity baseball diamond at the corner of Oak Hill & Oldman Road. In addition to the game, there are plenty of related festivities on the game day, including a tailgate party, music, and food concessions. Most importantly, funds from the event support the local Special Olympics program, as well as the Chamber. For more information, including sponsorship levels, or to become directly involved, go to woosterchamber.com for more details.

Your Wooster Chamber named a finalist for national Chamber of the Year!

The Wooster Area Chamber of Commerce is honored to be named a finalist for the 2019 Chamber of the Year award, presented by Alexandria, Va.-based Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives (ACCE). The award is the most prestigious and competitive recognition presented annually by ACCE, which is an association of more than 8,000 professionals from 1,300 chambers of commerce, including 93 of the top 100 U.S. metro areas.

CHAMBER OF THE YEAR FINALIST

The Chamber of the Year award recognizes the leadership role chambers have in their communities. Those honored with the Chamber of the Year designation have demonstrated organizational strength and made an impact on key community priorities, such as education, transportation, business development and quality of life.

This is the first time in the Chamber's 118 years that it has been named a finalist for this award, and the Board of Directors and the Staff of the Chamber would like to express their sincere appreciation to our membership and community for their faithful support.

A face to face interview with ACCE leadership and further review of Chamber operations will be the final analysis before the winner will be announced at the 2019 ACCE Annual Convention in Long Beach, California.

Member coffee & conversation

Join the Wooster Chamber for Coffee & Conversation on Wednesday, July 31st from 8 AM – 9 AM. New members will be given the opportunity to learn about the history, events, programs, and many benefits the Chamber offers. Attendees will also have the chance to introduce themselves and network with local business professionals. Coffee and pastries will be provided.

If you are a new or existing member that would like to learn more about the Chamber, be sure to attend this Coffee & Conversation!

Chamber celebrates opening of Undergrounds Cafe & Coffeehouse with official ribbon cutting event

Congratulations to Undergrounds Cafe & Coffeehouse on holding their official Chamber ribbon cutting! Undergrounds is a cafe and coffee shop that offers locally roasted coffees, a full espresso bar, and healthy food choices. Undergrounds focus is on clean label food items in all of their breakfast and lunch selections. They also host cooking demonstrations, art classes, and children's birthday parties. Undergrounds can be found in the lower level of the Liberty Commons in Wooster. City representatives, Chamber & Main Street staff, community members, and so many more were in attendance to celebrate the occasion. On behalf of the Wooster Area Chamber, congratulations to Undergrounds!

Leadership Wooster focuses on arts, religion & diversity

The Leadership Wooster class met on Wednesday, May 1st, to focus on arts, religion, and diversity in the community. The day began with a group diversity activity and discussion at the American Red Cross. Students toured the Freedlander Theater and listened to a presentation on the Ohio Light Opera. There were several round-table discussions throughout the afternoon based on nine diverse religions and beliefs in the local community. The day continued with a presentation by the Wooster High School Drama Club, a presentation and tour of Wayne Center for the Arts, and a leadership lesson led by Rodd Welker.

Laura Neill, Executive Director of the Ohio Light Opera (OLO) shares an overview of OLO to Leadership Wooster students at Freedlander Theater.

Students toured Wayne Center for the Arts and observed the unique pieces of art that were displayed.

2019 Wooster Chamber
Board Member

Chad Boreman is a Partner and Wealth Advisor with Boreman Norton Cook Wealth Partners, a company whose principle is that each client is provided personal one-on-one service, education, and understanding of their financial situations. He has been in the financial services industry for over 23 years. Chad is married to Sarah and they have two girls, Emma and Carter. The girls are very active in tennis and ballet which keeps Mom and Dad busy.

Chad has been heavily involved in a variety of Boards over the years such as Rotary International, Red Cross, Apple Creek Bank, Wooster Area Chamber of Commerce, Wayne County Community Improvement Corp., Tri-County Board of Education, and much more. From early on, his family has been involved in giving back to the community. Chad feels it is important to carry on the tradition of community service and pass it along to his daughters.

When asked about being a Wooster Area Chamber Board Member, Chad stated "It has been an honor and a privilege to be a part of the Chamber Board. The staff, Chamber members and the Board represent our community in such a positive light. I am always amazed at what so many do on a daily basis quietly and without hesitation to make Wooster a better place for all of us to live."

Safety Council

Upcoming meeting on heat exhaustion, heat stroke and staying safe this summer

Mike Berry
Firefighter, Fire
Inspector and State
Certified Paramedic,
Wooster Division of Fire

The Wooster Area Safety Council will meet on Wednesday, June 26th at First Presbyterian Church. For the final meeting of the 2019 Safety Council year, Wooster Division of Fire Inspector/Investigator, Mike Berry, will discuss heat exhaustion and heat stroke, as well as address ways to stay safe in the summer heat. Mike Berry is a 19 year veteran of the Wooster Division of Fire. Along with his duties as a Firefighter and Fire Inspector, Mike is also a State of Ohio certified Paramedic. Additionally, Mike is an Internationally Certified Fire Investigator and American Heart Association CPR Instructor. Mike's position as the Wooster Fire Inspector includes fire safety inspections, public education, fire prevention, acceptance testing on all forms of building life safety systems, fire & EMS calls, and fire investigations. Mike currently resides in Wooster with his wife and three sons. His time off is spent traveling to various sporting events for his kids and spending time with family and friends. Lunch will be served at 11:30 AM with the presentation beginning at 12:00 PM. Pre-registration is required for this event. If you have any questions regarding the meeting, please contact the Wooster Area Chamber of Commerce at 330-262-5735. We look forward to seeing you there!
