The birds & the bees

The birds & the bees. Yes, you read that right! This short program is a light-hearted look at the romantic lives of animals (did you know that city birds sing shorter courtship songs than country birds?).

Started in 2001 by Andy and Deanna Troutman, Troutman Vineyards was Wayne County's first winery. Home of the popular Farmers Red, Troutman Vineyards continues to expand on its wine varieties, including fruit and ice wines. Originally a chicken coop, Troutman Vineyards is a popular tourist attraction, weekend gathering place and is host to many showers and parties. On May 9 from 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM, Troutman Vineyards will provide one glass of wine, beer, or a nonalcoholic beverage per person as well as a gourmet cheese and cracker station. We hope you all will join us!

YP's learn about resiliency

The Chamber hosted a professional development luncheon on April 19, covering the topic of resiliency. The luncheon was catered by East of Chicago and featured Lenroy Jones, Executive Director of Career Services Center at Ashland University. Lenroy shared personal experiences of his efforts to be more resilient in life and also highlighted recognizable figures in history that relied on resiliency to make a difference. Many YP's go through challenges in the workplace and in life, as they work diligently to establish themselves. The session encouraged attendees to embrace challenges, to not dwell on setbacks and celebrate the wins along the way. We want to thank Lenroy for presenting and for all of the YP's who attended the session. Keep your eyes open for future professional development opportunities offered by the Wooster Young Professionals!

Lenroy Jones shared personal experiences of his efforts to be more resilient in life with Wooster Young Professionals.

Biscuit Uprising & Engaging the Spirit celebrate with ribbon cuttings

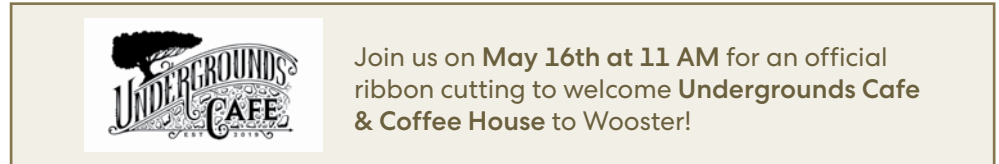

Chamber Staff, Mayor Breneman, and Biscuit Uprising employees look on as the ribbon is cut during the Biscuit Uprising Grand Opening.

Congratulations to Biscuit Uprising on holding their official Chamber ribbon cutting! Formerly Smoke the Burger Joint, Biscuit Uprising gives a fresh take on classic southern cuisine. The new eatery specializes in classic southern biscuits, using time-tested recipes and only the highest quality ingredients. On hand to celebrate the occasion were Biscuit Uprising staff, community members, representatives of the Canton Charge, and Pozzie, the Canton Charge mascot. Biscuit Uprising is open for breakfast and lunch daily. You can visit them at 206 Beall Avenue in Wooster.

A group of faithful supporters and clients of Engaging the Spirit gather to officially open the business's new space located at 2098 Portage Road, Suite 150

Engaging the Spirit capped off their Grand Opening weekend with an official ribbon cutting on Monday, April 29th. What started as a small yoga class in Owner, Brooke Winkler's basement has turned into a full studio offering classes in Yoga, Chakra Balancing, Reiki, and much more. Brooke has been a licensed therapist for 19 years. After seeing a connection between the psychological and spiritual, Brooke started Engaging the Spirit in 2006. Engaging the Spirit is now located at 2098 Portage Road, Suite 150 on the lower level. Congratulations to Brooke on all of her success! The Chamber is excited to see the business grow in years to come.
